

Torn Screen Door

David Francey
Arranged by Andy Rush

♩ = 100

Everyone in Unison

Late sum-mer day and my love and I went walk-in' Ov-er hills and fields we walked laugh-in, and talk-in, came a-cross an old farm house stand-ing bro-ken and bare,— it used to be some-one's home, now no one— lives there.

5

9 Sopranos & Altos

There's a red barn stand-ing held to - ge-ther with nails and dust, and a ti-red old Mas-sey Har-ris all wi-res—and rust. Weeds o-ver-grown in a

Tenors & Basses

14 Chorus

gar-den sown with care, it used to be some-one's home, now no one— lives there, Through the crack in the win-dow pane, I hear the sounds of the (tenor melody)

18

fall - ing— rain,— A - no-ther farm be - ing left run— down a - no-ther fam - ily moved in - to— town. Had a life that they tried to___ save,___ but the banks took it all a - way,___ hung a sign on the torn screen door,___ no - bo - dy lives

21

24

Sopranos & Altos

here no___ more,___ they worked their fin - gers to the___ bone, no-thing left they could call their___ own,___ packed it in un - der

Tenors & Basses

27

Chorus

lead - en___ skies,___ with just the wheat wa-ving them good - bye Had a life that they tried to___ save,___ but the banks took it all a - way,___ hung a sign on the torn screen door,___ no - bo - dy lives here no___ more,___ Had a life that they tried to___ save,___ but the banks took it all a - way,___ hung a sign on the torn screen door, no - bo - dy lives here no___ more,

30

33